

Aur

cora Bore

alis

The image features a stylized landscape background. The top portion is a gradient of blue and green, suggesting a sky or distant hills. Below this is a dark blue horizontal band, followed by a purple band representing a horizon. A black silhouette of a forest with pointed trees spans across the middle. The bottom portion is a light blue area, possibly representing water or a field. The word 'alis' is written in a white, rounded font with a green outline, positioned on the left side of the image.